Property summary

Location

Portgordon is a village in Moray which is renowned as being one of the sunniest and driest Counties in Scotland and has a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat and shop. The County is famed for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, wildlife and offers wonderful leisure and other recreational opportunities including golf and angling. Spey Bay is 5 miles away and can be reached on foot as part of the Speyside Way. Portgordon is popular seal watching spot, and seals can be seen basking on the shore, drawn to the coast line due to its abundance of fish. Portgordon has a nursery and primary school with secondary schooling found at Buckie High or Milne's High in close by Fochabers. Portgordon is also served by a general store with post office, village hall and community cafe. The village has a strong community ethos with lots of community activities. Elgin, Aberdeen and Inverness are all within easy commuting distance whilst train stations at Keith and Elgin provide direct links to Aberdeen and Inverness. Buckie and Elgin offer major supermarkets, a good selection of independent shops, sporting and recreational facilities. Aberdeen and Inverness provide all of the facilities expected from a city, with an excellent selection of shopping, retail parks and associated services, rail links and airports.
