Full details

Portknockie is a picturesque village in Moray, one of the sunniest and driest counties in Scotland.

The area offers a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat, and shop. It is renowned for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, and abundant wildlife, along with leisure and recreational opportunities, including golf and angling. Portknockie is on a regular bus route with easy access to the nearby town of Buckie and the larger town of Elgin. Both towns offer major supermarkets, a variety of independent shops, and a broad selection of sporting and recreational facilities. The cities of Aberdeen and Inverness are also within a commuting distance. This family home is within easy walking distance of the harbour, primary school, general store, popular fish and chip shop, hotel and all other local amenities.

16 Haig Street is a two storey family home which can easily work as a bungalow. The property sits on a generous plot with two driveways on either side of the house, a garage and a large rear garden. The accommodation comprises on the ground floor; vestibule, hall, living room opening into a conservatory, dining kitchen, shower room and two 2 double bedrooms; and on the first floor; large living room and bedroom 3. All fitted carpets, floor coverings, window blinds and light fittings are included in the sale price.

The property is accessed via a glazed uPVC door into the vestibule which houses the electric meter, a glazed door opens into the hall which accesses the living room, dining kitchen, bedrooms 1 & 2, shower room and the staircase to the first floor. The hall also provides storage by way of a shelved cupboard and the rear exterior door which opens into the garden.

The living room is open plan with the conservatory, which overlooks the garden. The owners have retained the previously installed sliding glazed doors which separated the two rooms and these could be easily reinstated. These doors will be left in the garage.

The dining kitchen is fitted with a selection of base and wall mounted shaker style units with wood effect worktops and upstands. A matching fixed dining table accommodates 6 people.
