Findochty is a village in Moray which is renowned as being one of the sunniest and driest Counties in Scotland and has a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat and shop. The County is famed for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, wildlife and offers wonderful leisure and other recreational opportunities including golf and angling. Findochty is on a bus route with easy access to the nearest town of Buckie and onwards to the larger town of Elgin both of which offer major supermarkets, a good selection of independent shops, sporting and recreational facilities. Both Aberdeen and Inverness are within an easy commuting distance.

Full details

Sitting in an elevated position this home enjoys sea views and is within easy reach of all village amenities and the local Primary School. The property is in a walk-in condition with beautiful low maintenance gardens as well as the benefit of a garage.

The accommodation comprises on the ground floor; vestibule, hall, living room, kitchen, conservatory and bathroom and on the first floor two double bedrooms one with a large ensuite; All fitted floor coverings, window blinds and light fittings are included in the sale price.

The property is entered via a uPVC door into a vestibule which houses the electric meter and accesses the hall via a glazed door which in turn accesses the living room, kitchen, ground floor bathroom and staircase to the first floor. The hall has a large under stair cupboard and a second with coat hooks.

The living room has a large window overlooking the front garden making this a lovely bright room. The living room has, as its focal point a fire surround with gas fire sitting between two alcoves. The room is decorated in neutral tones with a contrasting feature wall and finished with a vinyl floor.
