Aberdeen and Inverness provide all of the facilities expected from a city, with an excellent selection of shopping, retail parks and associated services, rail links and airports.

Full details

64 East Church Street is a detached family home which enjoys an elevated spot providing fantastic sea views across the Moray Firth. The property has in the past functioned as a holiday let with the potential to have two ground floor holiday lets or would also make a great B&B opportunity.

The property retains many traditional features including traditional tiling in the vestibule, interior wood panelled doors with traditional facings, deep skirtings, decorative coving, ceiling roses and a stained glass window in the entrance hall.

The property is accessed via a glazed uPVC door into the tiled vestibule which opens via a glazed internal door with an etched glass panel into the hall. The carpeted hall gives access to the two front facing public rooms, the staircase to the first floor and the rear vestibule. The carpeted staircase to the first floor has a curved banister with decorative spindles up to the half landing which has a beautiful stained glass window. The rear vestibule provides under stair storage and a uPVC door out to the rear garden.

The first ground floor public room has a large bay window overlooking the front of the property and retains lots of traditional features with the focal point being the beautifully carved wooden
