Full details

Buckie is a historic fishing town in Moray, renowned for being one of the sunniest and driest counties in Scotland. It offers a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat, and shop. The county is famed for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, and wildlife, and offers wonderful leisure and recreational opportunities, including golf and angling. Elgin, Aberdeen, and Inverness are all within easy commuting distance, while train stations at Keith and Elgin provide direct links to Aberdeen and Inverness. These cities offer a full range of facilities, including excellent shopping, retail parks, associated services, rail links, and airports.

This semi-detached home is situated within the popular residential area of the Yardie, close to the old harbour, enjoying a fantastic coastal location and providing sea views. 68 Yardie has been utilised by the current owners as a holiday cottage and all furniture and contents can be purchased by separate negotiation. The property is well presented and the accommodation is spread over two floors, comprising on the ground floor; hall, living room, kitchen, bathroom, ground floor double bedroom, and on the first floor; two double bedrooms one with ensuite shower and shower room.

The property is entered via a glazed wooden door into the hall, which provides access to the living room, ground floor bedroom and staircase to the first floor. Within the hall is a large under stair cupboard which has built-in shelving and light. The hall is finished with laminate flooring which continues into the ground floor bedroom.

The focal point of the large living room is the brick fireplace which houses a multi-fuel stove. A window with deep display sill overlooks the front of the property whilst at the opposite end of the room a second sill opens directly into the kitchen. This room is also finished with wood effect flooring.

The galley style kitchen is accessed directly from the living room and has a window overlooking the rear. The kitchen is fitted with a selection of gloss units with contrasting worktop. The slot-in electric oven will remain whilst the washing machine and fridge freezer can be purchased separately. Within the kitchen is a utility area with fitted shelving. A glazed door opens into the
